NUMB. 3046

TUESDAY DECEMBER 6. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Berlin, December 1.

YEsterday his Majesty arrived at Potsdam. Baron Bulau, the Saxon Minister, is returned hither from Breslau; where he has been for some Time, in order to put the last Hand to a Treaty of Commerce between Saxony and Silesia. The Count de Gotter is also come back from Gotha, where he had been to execute a Commission of very great Importance. All the Foreign Ministers here are extremely full of Business; and by the Preparations that are making, it is very evident that some Stroke of Eclat will shortly astonish the World from this Quarter. The French Minister is still in great Credit; but the reigning Favourite is apparently the Russian Minister. According to our last Advices from Sweden, the Marquis de la Cherdie having retired early from a Ball given by the French Ambassador, spent the best Part of the Night in a private Conference with Count Gillenbourg; in which, we are told, all the Particulars of the new System were entirely adjusted. The Basis of this new System is to be a Triple Alliance between the Crowns of Russia, France, and Sweden.

Dresden, December 1. It begins now to be whisper'd at Court, that the great Affair is over, and that a Definitive Treaty is concluded, between our Court and that of Vienna; by which all Disputes are effectually settled, and the Rights of the Electoral House of Saxony to the eventual Succession of the Dominions of the House of Austria secured. We are told, that this grand Affair will be speedily made publick, by Order of the Court; which will give us the greater Satisfaction, because the Partizans of France pretend still to disbelieve it. The Queen has brought with her from Leipsick Dr. Wolter, who cured her of her late Indisposition; and he is, for the future, to reside constantly at Court, with a very considerable Pension.

Ingolstadt, November 29. The Court of Vienna has not yet fixed its Resolution, with regard to the Fortifications of this Place. The Dispute now is, whether they shall be entirely demolished, or greatly augmented; either of which will be considered as a great Inconvenience to us. The new Regulation for Winter-Quarters, the Scheme of Count Khevenhuller, and is, indeed, fully worthy of him. All Kind of Contributions, ordinary and extraordinary, are suspended, from the 1st of November, 1743. to the 1st of April, 1744. to prevent the entire exhausting the Inhabitants of this Electorate; from whom nothing of any Sort will be expect d but a Sum stipulated for the Pay of the Troops, which will be drawn back into the People's Pockets, by their supplying them with Provisions, and other Necessaries, for which they are to pay constantly ready Money. We compute the Whole of this Charge at present, at something under 6,000,000. This is the Substance of the three first Articles in the Regulation, which consists of fifteen in all.

Paris, December 9. Commodore Du Bart is much about Court, and has had several Conferences with the Ministers; whence we are inclined to believe, that he the Person made choice of to command the Armament that is now making at Brest. We were a little mistaken, in saying that this Squadron was actually sail'd; whereas M. Du Bart has declared, that it cannot be in a Condition to sail before February. Another Report that the News-Writers published very inconsiderately, was, that of the Number of Men that were to be draughted out of the Livery throughout France, which has had a very bad Effect. Some Thousands of these Party-colour'd Gentlemen having slipp'd out of the Kingdom for mere Fear; upon which that Project is, or is said to be, entirely laid aside.

Hague, December 11. The Marquis de St. Giles took Occasion to say, at a Publick Entertainment, That, notwithstanding all that had been published by the Austrian News-Writers of the great Feats of Prince Lobkowitz in Italy, he had certain Intelligence, that he had withdrawn his Troops from Cattolica, and had put them into Quarters.

To which a Person of Distinction, who was present, answered, I do not dispute your Excellency's Intelligence; but if mine be true from the same Quarter, it is very high'y probable, that both his Highness of Lobkowitz, and his Highness of Modena, will both keep their Christmas in the Kingdom of Naples. To which the Marquis de St. Giles made no Answer.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, December 11. 'The King has issued an Ordinance, by which he grants 11,144 Men from the Militia, to be distributed through the several Regiments of French Foot which returned out of Bavaria, in order to help them the better to recruit, so as that they may be complete before the beginning of next Campaign.

'The Court still continues very numerous and very brilliant, as well on account of the Promotion of General Officers, which is speedily expected, as from the Number of considerable Employments which are vacant, and must be soon given away.

'We don't know when the five Battalions which were in Garison at Egra, and are at present in Moravia, will return; for tho', by the Cartel, the Ransom of a Soldier is fixed at three Months Pay, and of their Officers in proportion; yet the Queen of Hungary sets up many other Pretences of the Debts contracted by the French in Bohemia, and of the like Nature, which embarasses the Affair much. In the mean time, about 200 of these People have found a Way to desert, and get, as well as they could, towards the Rhine; which occasions the rest to be more strictly guarded.

'Five Merchant Men from St. Malo's, escorted by a like Number of Men of War, sailed lately from that Port for the West Indies, in pursuance of the Licence granted them by the King of Spain for that Purpose.

With Submission to this Writer's Authority, this Piece of News appears to be a little doubtful, because the very accepting of such a Licence, is a direct and formal Breach of the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Utrecht.

'Our last Letters from Brest and Rochfort assure us, that the Ships fitting out in those Parts will be ready to sail to Toulon by the 25th of this Month, in order to join the Squadron which is equipping there with the utmost Diligence.

'We are assured, that the Circles of the Empire have demanded the Magazine that was lately carried off by M. Ruplemonde from Etlingen.

'They write from Hunninguen of the 4th Instant, that the Redoubts, and other Works intended to cover the Head of a Bridge over the Rhine, a little below that Town, are actually finished; and that 1500 Men mount guard in them.

'We are certainly informed, that Mr. Thomson, the British Minster, has transmitted to his Court a Memorial, containing a Plan for a general Accommodation, communicated to him by our Ministers; who, at the same time informed him, that it had been offered by a certain Power to France, by whom all its Articles were approved; and that his most Christian Majesty, when he knew the King of Great Britain's Sentiments thereupon, would take more or less vigorous Measures in relation to his own and his Allies Concerns; and that M. de Bussy will not return to London, unless it meets with a favourable Reception.'

The Regency of the Principality of Liege have doubled their Guards, and sent a Body of Troops to their Frontiers; and taken every other necessary Precaution, in order to prevent any Surprize from the French at this Juncture.

Our last Advices from Madrid, by the Way of France, say, the Marquis de la Mina is actually disgraced; that he had Orders to quit the Command of the Army to the Marquis de Castellar, who is the Duke de Montemar's Son-in-Law.

The same Letters say, that the Army in Savoy is in the utmost Confusion. The Swiss Soldiers fancy'd that less Care was taken of them, in the Distribution of Quarters, than of the Spaniards, of which Col. Bovay complain'd to the Infant Don Philip; who, instead of giving him any Answer, sent him Prisoner to Spain; upon which 300 Swiss deserted in three Night's Time.

THE Third and Fourth VOLUMES of BIBLIOTHECA HARLEIANA.

The Offence which has been undesignedly given, by setting a Price upon the Harleian Catalogue, makes it necessary to lay before the Publick, the Reason for which a Method so unusual is taken; which is not to extort from the Learned and Curious any extraordinary Expence, but to prevent so large a Catalogue from being wantonly demanded by those to whom it is of no Use, which cannot be permitted without great Inconvenience; there being not many more printed of these Volumes, than will complete the Sets of those who have been pleased to purchase the former: It is therefore proposed, that every Gentleman who shall lay down the Price of these Volumes, shall be at Liberty to return them within three Months after the Day of Sale, and receive Books in Exchange to the same Value; or, if it be desired his Money.

Of the Day of Sale timely Notice will be given in the Publick Papers, that those Gentlemen who are too far distant to favour us with their Presence, may have Time to send their Commissions.
